

Rain Glorious Rain

Here in Stutterheim we certainly are enjoying a wet summer. While many other parts of the Eastern Cape have really been battling with water supplies we have been in the very fortunate position of being lush and green. The waterfalls are flowing strongly and the forests are looking amazing.