

The Manderson Hotel and Conference Centre in Stutterheim

So much more than just a conference centre...

A warm welcome awaits you at The Manderson, Three Star Hotel and Conference Centre, situated at the base of the forested Amatola Mountains, 7km from the town of Stutterheim. The Manderson is owner managed and we speak Dutch and German.

Our geographical location in the province of the Eastern Cape, conveniently close to major centres, makes us a well placed stop-over for travellers. We have become a much sought-after destination for business and international travellers, weekend visitors and conference groups.

Our pride in offering professional service is expressed through our friendly, courteous staff members and attention to detail, and is further reflected in the pristine beauty of the hotel grounds.
